STAY AMONG THE TREES: SKAMANIA LODGE ELEVATES COLUMBIA GORGE EXPERIENCE BY ADDING A TRIO OF TREE HOUSES TO ITS GROWING VILLAGE

The newly reimagined treehouses provide couples, families and solo adventurers a place to relax, reconnect and explore the scenic Pacific Northwest

STEVENSON, WA. (January X, 2023) Skamania Lodge continues to be the top destination getaway in the Pacific Northwest where families, couples and solo adventurers can enjoy personalized experiences and memorable moments that last a lifetime. As part of its mission to provide extraordinary experiences, today the lodge announced the addition of three new Tree Houses to its expanding tree house village, bringing the total to nine Tree Houses. Perched above the forest floor and nestled in the tall Douglas Firs, the new Tree Houses provide a simple, yet stunning aesthetic that connects guests with the beauty of the surrounding natural habitat .

Enveloped in the serene forest canopy, the custom new Tree Houses soar 40 feet high above the ground and are rich with exclusive amenities designed to inspire the imagination, re-energize the mind and body, and fuel the soul – for families, couples, and wanderlust travelers alike. The Tree Houses boast an improved, spacious, modern yet rustic design that evokes a feeling of warmth and tranquility. Each Tree House features plush bedding and furniture with a king bed, a cozy Queen bed nook, private fire pits to spark conversation, and covered outdoor decks to allow guests to relax and soak in the breathtaking panoramic views of the surrounding Cascade Mountains

"Whether you want to slip away for a romantic couple's getaway, spend quality time with family, or recharge your spirit with a solo adventure, our Tree Houses provide the perfect escape from the city," said Kara Owen, general manager of Skamania Lodge "By expanding our Tree House options and amenities, more guests can take advantage of an unforgettable Gorge experience."

If the three newly imagined tree houses aren't enough to feed the soul, the 175-acre Skamania Lodge overflows with one-of-a-kind indoor and outdoor experiences. Step outside to zipline through the trees, or complete an aerial obstacle course, high in the treetops. Explore the Columbia Gorge wineries; savor delicious, local food and drink; and experience the rejuvenating spa treatments, a heated pool, and hot tubs backdropped by the Columbia Gorge Mountains. The exclusive treehouse amenities coupled with endless activities will fulfill guests' vacation dreams.

FAMILY ADVENTURE

For families looking to reconnect, the nostalgia of the treehouse will take everyone back to simpler times without the distraction of the digital world. Kids can run free in our wide open spaces, while mom and dad sip a glass of chardonnay and soak in the spectacular views from the covered deck above. The whole family can come together at the end of the day to play board games or roast smores at their private firepit.

ONE WITH NATURE

For the wanderlust traveler looking to be re-energized, the Tree Houses will provide a peaceful getaway in the woods. They'll find solitude in the fresh air as they enjoy complimentary Nespresso coffee on the deck. When they're not exploring the trails, they can recharge at the Waterleaf Spa or enjoy our curated forest bathing experience.

COUPLES GETAWAY

The hustle and bustle of life and work can make it difficult to connect with a partner. The treehouses offer the perfect escape to reconnect, whether it's relaxing together in luxurious fluffy bathrobes or cuddling up next to the private firepit. During the day, guests can explore the Columbia Gorge wineries together, or savor a romantic dinner at Skamania's Cascade Dining Room, followed by a nightcap amidst the trees.

"We are always looking for ways to reimagine the guest experience and our team continues to push the envelope for what's possible," Owen said. "This is an exciting time for Skamania Lodge."
