SPOTLIGHT ON Flora Rudolph

Forest Bathing
Expert & Teacher

“Meeting trees and deepening my connections has become central as this is such a mind-boggling, heart-opening experience. Trees know us and what we need to be awake and vital. It is such a joy to share this and to see others feel this life-changing connection.”

Skamania Lodge introduced forest bathing to our guests in 2021, with guidance and expertise from Flora Rudolph. Flora’s intense and open-hearted connection with trees over the past 15 years has been life changing, including helping her recover from a traumatic brain injury. Join Flora for our new workshops this summer.

Forest Bathing + Meeting Trees Workshops

An immersive experience along the Creek Loop Trail, the workshop includes qigong, each participant’s individual selection of Tree Transformation Cards, and a mindful walk to the pond. Participants also engage in sensory exercises and meditation to deepen their connection with trees and the earth.
